

Vegetable Prints

When dinner is served, and there's onions, corn, and beets, Make vegetable prints, and find something else to eat!

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED

- Poster paint
- Raw vegetables (such as onions, carrots, corn-on-the-cob, celery, and potatoes)
- *Sharp knife (for grown-up use only)
- Heavy paper plate
- Sheet of paper
- Newspaper

HERE'S WHAT YOU DO

- 1 Cover table with newspaper.
- 2 Ask a grown-up to use the knife to cut vegetables with a flat surface showing.
- 3 Pour a thin layer of paint into a heavy paper plate. Dip the flat side of vegetables in paint. Press vegetables onto paper for vegetable prints.

MORE ART FUN!

- ☆ Use things such as a plastic berry basket, cork, potato masher, and other gadgets to dip into paint for a print.
- ☆ Do you have a vegetable garden? No matter where you live – even if you have a small stoop or sunny windowsill – you can grow a cherry tomato plant. You need a medium-sized clay pot, some potting soil, a healthy plant, and some water. Plant your plant, water it, place in a sunny spot, and watch it grow. Yum!
